School Attendance

What parents need to know

Why is good attendance important?

Good attendance and punctuality are vital for success at school, and to establish positive life habits that are necessary for future success.

Through regular attendance, pupils can:

- build friendships
- develop their social groups
- develop life skills
- engage in essential learning and other school social events
- achieve to their full potential
- minimise the risk of engaging in antisocial behaviour and becoming victims or perpetrators of crime

All parents should promote good attendance and work in partnership with school to provide a cohesive approach.

What the law says?

All children of compulsory school age (between 5-16) must receive a suitable full-time education. As a parent, you are responsible for ensuring that this happens, either by registering your child at a school or by making appropriate alternative arrangements.

Once you have registered your child at a school, you are also legally responsible for ensuring that your child attends school regularly. If you fail to do this – even if your child misses school without you knowing – legal action can be taken against you by the Local Authority. It is a legal offence to fail to ensure your child attends school regularly.

Legal action can involve a penalty notice or being taken to court.

Parents also face the risk of imprisonment and parenting orders. Parenting orders involve attending a counselling and guidance programme, usually a parenting class.

Can my child ever be absent?

When a pupil is absent from school, this will be classified as either 'authorised' or 'unauthorised'.

The governing board and Principal decide which absences are granted as authorised. Authorised absences are only permitted for valid reasons, e.g.:

- Medical or dental appointments
- Religious observances
- Family bereavement

Wherever possible, parents should always try to arrange medical and dental appointments during school holidays or after school hours.

What are unauthorised absences?

Unauthorised absences are those which the school does not consider essential or reasonable.

Unauthorised absences can include:

- Forgetting school term dates
- Oversleeping Absences which have not been explained
- Arriving at school after registration
- Leaving school for no reason during the day
- Truancy before or during the school day
- Keeping pupils off school unnecessarily or without explanation
- Day trips or family outings
- Birthdays and holidays

Holidays during term time

Taking holidays during term time means that pupils miss important school time – both educationally and for other school activities. It will be difficult for pupils to catch up on work when they return to school.

Only in exceptional circumstances may a holiday be authorised during term time – the criteria for this are stated in the school's attendance policy which has been agreed alongside our local network of schools.

Exceptional circumstances do not include cheaper costs, family availability or weather conditions.

You can be fined if you take your child on holiday during term time without permission from the Principal.

Requesting absences

Authorisation of absences are at the discretion of the Headteacher.

All absences, including for holidays, must be requested as far in advance as possible – the minimum notice period is 10 days. If you think your child needs to be taken out of school, you should discuss the reasons with the Principal as soon as possible.

If the Headteacher is satisfied with the evidence and the notice period, they will authorise the absence.

The Headteacher will consider the amount of time a pupil can be away from school, taking into account their attendance record. Requests will not be granted in the following circumstances:

- Immediately before or during assessment periods
- When a pupil's attendance record shows any unauthorised absence for any reason
- Where a pupil's authorised absence record is already above 5%, for any reason

Lateness and truancy

Good attendance doesn't just involve being present in school – it also involves punctuality. You also have a responsibility to ensure that your child arrives to school on time and stays in school during the day.

Children arrive, class doors open at 8.40am

School day starts at 8.50am

Children will be marked as late if they arrive after 8.50am

If the school believes a pupil is truanting, immediate action will be taken – this can escalate to penalty notices.

How can I help?

You can help in many ways:

- Encourage good attendance by making sure your child goes to school regularly.
- Take an interest in your child's schoolwork.
- Make sure your child understands that you do not approve of absence from school.
- Support our school in our efforts to control inappropriate behaviour.
- Inform us on the first day of your child's absence and keep us updated throughout the absence period.
- Cooperate with our school to make sure your child overcomes any attendance problems.
- Discuss planned absences with the Principal and apply for permission well in advance.
- Only take your child out of school during term time where the absence has been authorised.

Attendance matters!

Don't underestimate the importance of 100 percent attendance and punctuality. Even one day missed can have an effect on learning.

- 98 percent attendance means four school days missed
- 95 percent attendance means 10 school days missed
- 90 percent attendance means 19 school days missed
- 80 percent attendance means 38 school days missed
- Five minutes late each day means three school days missed

Please help us promote good attendance throughout our school, you play a vital role.
